

THE HISTORICAL USE OF TIMBER AS A BUILDING MATERIAL, REPAIRS & CONSERVATION

CPD LECTURES BY DR. JOSEPH BISPHAM
IN ASSOCIATION WITH S.P.A.B ESSEX GROUP
S.P.A.B CHARITY NO 1113753

Morning illustrated lectures with refreshments & light lunch

6TH MARCH 2020
9.30AM - 1.00PM
CRESSING TEMPLE

Lecture 1: 9.30am

An overview of the use of timber in vernacular timber frame building in the East of England 13th - 17th Centuries including case studies of timber frame repairs and conservation.

Tea & Coffee 10.30

Lecture 2: 11.00am

An introduction to the history and use of imported Nordic softwoods into Eastern England and its influence on design and construction of historic buildings. Including case studies of repairs to external joinery including specifications and repair techniques.

Light Lunch 12.15

Total Cost £55.00

Dr. Bispham is an historic building advisor and a member of the technical panel of the S.P.A.B

For further information please email
bispham_@tiscali.co.uk